The reply filed on June 30, 2010 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because: In a notice of non-compliant amendment mailed to Applicant on April 2, 2010, Applicant was specifically asked to provide the proper status identifier for each claim. Applicant was particularly asked to correct the status identifiers of claims 33-40 to reflect these claims as "withdrawn." In response to the notice of non-compliant amendment, Applicant still fails to identify claims 33-40 as withdrawn. Applicant completely fails to address the status identifier issues raised in the notice of non-compliant amendment; therefore, the reply filed on June 30, 2010 is deemed to be non-responsive. Since no attempt was made to address the status identifier issues raised in the notice of non-compliant amendment mailed on April 2, 2010, Applicant's reply filed on June 30, 2010 is deemed to be a non-bona-fide attempt at a proper response to the last Office correspondence of April 2, 2010. Additionally, Applicant filed a petition to suspend prosecution on June 30, 2010. This petition was denied. Applicant has been granted no additional period for response.
